4. Practical Application

4.1 What part of the training was most useful for your work?

— enlightenment of all the aspects of SEL
 — the importance of us (educators) to be well informed so as to be able to help learners & colleagues

4.2 What part of the training was least useful?

No part was least useful for me. Every part was most useful

4.3 How do you plan to apply SEL in your school?

— first share the information I got to engage all stakeholders
 — form a committee to steer SEL throughout
 — work with the social work at school.

5. Impact and Support

| Statement                                                                   | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|
| 5.1 I now understand the importance of SEL in the school environment.       |   |   |   |   | X |
| 5.2 I believe SEL can positively impact learners' well-being and behaviour. |   |   |   |   | X |
| 5.3 I feel supported to implement SEL at my school.                         |   |   |   |   | X |

6. Suggestions

6.1 Do you have any suggestions for improving future SEL trainings?

I wish these trainings were done for every school, where the facilitator(s) come/visit schools to do the training

6.2 Are there any additional topics or skills you would like included in future sessions?

— involve parents, because some/most problems start at home.
